

House of Tudor Statistics

A Grouped Bar Chart to Show Information About the House of Tudor Monarchs

Length of Reign

Age When They Became Monarch

Questions

1. Who reigned for the most years?

2. Who became monarch at the youngest age?

3. Which monarch was the second youngest when crowned?

4. Who became monarch at the age of 28?

5. Who reigned for 6 years longer than Henry VIII?

6. How many more years did Henry VIII reign for than Henry VII?

7. What is the difference between the youngest and oldest ages of becoming monarch?

8. Which monarch was 19 years older than Henry VIII when they came to the throne?

9. How many years did the House of Tudor reign for in total?

10. Who reigned for the longer time in total – the Tudor kings or Tudor queens? How much longer did they reign for?

Answers

1. Who reigned for the most years?

Elizabeth I

2. Who became monarch at the youngest age?

Edward VI

3. Which monarch was the second youngest when crowned?

Henry VIII

4. Who became monarch at the age of 28?

Henry VII

5. Who reigned for 6 years longer than Henry VIII?

Elizabeth I

6. How many more years did Henry VIII reign for than Henry VII?

6 years

7. What is the difference between the youngest and oldest ages of becoming monarch?

28 years

8. Which monarch was 19 years older than Henry VIII when they came to the throne?

Mary I

9. How many years did the House of Tudor reign for in total?

117.5 years

10. Who reigned for the longer time in total – the Tudor kings or Tudor queens? How much longer did they reign for?

Tudor kings – they reigned for 68.5 years and the queens reigned for 49 years. The kings reigned for 19.5 more years in total.